- (a) a fractional part of ten cents was not declared by the totalisator as a dividend payable to punters; or
- (b) the ticket that would entitle the holder thereof to a refund was not claimed by the holder.”.

8. Amendment of Regulation 19

Regulation 19 is hereby amended by the—

- (a) substitution for regulation 19 of the following regulation:

“(1) A bookmaker holding a licence issued in terms of section 34C of the Act, must pay to the Board a weekly levy, as determined in Annexure H, not later than Wednesday of each week, or if any Wednesday is a public holiday, not later than the next working day.

(2) A bookmaker must, within seven days after a particular event or betting contingency—

- (a) submit to the Board a return in the format of Form 6; and
- (b) pay in terms of sub-regulation (1) the levy due to the Board.

(3) A bookmaker is, in respect of any particular event or betting contingency, not required to pay to the Board a greater amount in respect of a levy referred to in section 54(1)(a) of the Act than the amount which would have been payable if the total levy payable were calculated upon a sum arrived at by deducting from the total punters' winnings on bets accepted by the bookmaker in respect of that event or betting contingency, the punters winnings on bets placed on that event or contingency —

- (a) with a licenced bookmaker carrying on business in the province whose take-out percentage is equal to that of Limpopo; or
- (b) on a licensed totalisator in the Republic of South Africa:

Provided that the amount must not exceed the total punters' winnings on bets accepted by the bookmaker in respect of that betting contingency.

- (4) In these regulations—
- (a) winnings are determined by deducting from the total amount payable, the amount staked for that particular bet; and
 - (b) a bet that includes an element relating to horseracing is regarded as a horseracing bet.
- (5) If in a tax period the amount of gross betting revenue is less than zero, the bookmaker may deduct the gross betting loss in the subsequent tax periods, limited to a maximum of four tax periods, and set off against the gross betting revenue realised in the subsequent tax periods.”;

- (b) substitution for Annexure H of the Regulations for the following Annexure:
